

▲ This old Safeway grocery store is one of Wallingford's only Art Deco-style buildings.

Q What are the colors of the building today?

yellow with blue trim and a mural

◀ This arch is part of a grand entrance to a big building one block south of N 45th.

Q How many steps up from the front yard up to the doors?

twenty-five

Seattle's Wallingford neighborhood developed in the early 20th century as a working- and middle-class streetcar suburb with a thriving commercial core along N. 45th Street. Today, this dynamic, evolving corridor is encircled by one of the city's best collections of Craftsman bungalows and other popularly styled early- and mid-20th century houses.

◀ The Beatles walked across Abbey Road in 1969. Their music was issued on vinyl records.

Q What is the name of the store located behind the mural that will sell you vinyl records?

Golden Oldies

SPONSORS

Archie McPhee

Stoneway N and N 45th

Seattle Pops

Interlake N and N 45th

Swanson's Shoe Repair

Corliss N and N 45th

Wally Pets

Wallingford N just south of N 45th

Murphy's Pub

Meridian N and N 45th

Historic Wallingford thanks these volunteers:
Dennis McCarthy, Linda Sewell, Mike Ruby, and Sarah Martin.

#whereinwallingford

DISCOVER OUR HISTORY

ENTER TO WIN

2021 TREASURE HUNT

Do your best to complete the questions and submit your form to a drop box at a sponsor listed above by September 15, 2021.

*We will contact you if your entry is drawn.
There is a limit of one prize per (household or family).*

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

EMAIL _____

PHONE _____

Celebrate Wallingford with this self-guided Treasure Hunt in and around Wallingford's business district. Explore historic architecture and flourishes of art with family and friends. Solve the clues and then enter to win a prize! See details at HistoricWallingford.org.

▲ This artistic feature is found above a storefront in a Mediterranean Revival-style building.

Q How many individual storefronts do you count in this one-story block?

six or eight, depending

▶ This shingled tower rises from a building that has been adapted to serve a different use. The building still has features that reveal its original use, such as the garage doors.

Q How many garage doors do you count?

three sets

▲ This entryway sign in the sidewalk marks where Tweedy & Popp sold hardware for many, many years.

Q What is sold there now?

rugs

BONUS: what was the original use?

fire station

▼ This giraffe is part of an enormous mural painted on the side of a 1920s building.

Q What is the mural advertising?

Blue Star Café

◀ This artistic serpent detail is at the entrance of a 3-story building just north of N 45th.

Q What is the function of this building?

apartments

▼ This ghost sign advertises this building's very first occupant in 1920.

Q What business is now in this building on the corner?

Sea Monster

◀ This rotating sign advertises a hamburger drive-in that opened in 1954.

Q What kind of service does this sign promise?

Instant

▶ This decorative keystone is found above the entrance to what was originally the Jack-Lan Apartments, built in 1929.

Q How many brick arches are in the window directly above the entrance?

three

▲ This quarter-arch window is found on a building that first functioned as a single-family home.

Q What is the building's address?

1415 N 45th St

◀ This fluted column with an Ionic-style capital supports the west entry porch to this Landmarked building.

Q What is the building's current name and its original name?

Wallingford Center and Interlake Public School

▲ Q What restaurant located on N 46th now occupies the building of this once garage?

Bizarro Italian